CONTRACT FOR MUSICAL SERVICES PROVIDED BY DISCO ODYSSEY (2019)

This is a contract between [insert your name(s)] (the 'client') and Disco Odyssey (the 'band') for Disco Odyssey to provide musical services at the following event: [insert title of event] at [insert name of venue and venue address] on [insert date of event].

It is agreed as follows:

The performance: the band will perform two live sets, each one lasting approximately one hour, in accordance with the times detailed below:

First set timings: from [insert time] to [insert time]

Second set timings: from [insert time] to [insert time]

In between its live performances the band will provide pre-recorded music for guests to dance to. The band will adhere to the performance times above unless otherwise agreed in advance with the client.

Facilities: the client agrees to provide the band with something to eat during the evening and also a room in which the band can get changed. The client will also seek assurances from the venue that it is able to provide a stage/performance area not smaller than 5m in width and 3m from front to back plus at least two electrical sockets.

Payment: the agreed fee for the above performance is £[insert amount]. The client is required to pay a deposit of 25% of the agreed fee when returning a signed copy of this contract. The balance should be paid either by bank transfer two weeks in advance of the event or in cash on the band's arrival at the event. In any event, the payment of the balance must be made in advance of the commencement of the band's performance.

Cancellation: if the event or the band is cancelled by the client then the band shall be entitled to retain the 25% deposit paid by the client. If the performance by the band is cancelled due to some other reason (for example, the illness of a band member, an extreme weather event, a car accident) the client shall be entitled to a full refund of any monies paid to the band (including the deposit).
